THE MODERN YOUNG PERSON.

"RITA," IN "DECEMBER."

The Young Person sat alone in her study, as she called it. A smile of infinite enjoyment on her lips. She was seated in a wicker chair, with a book in her lap, and a pen in her hand. Her hair, which was auburn, was pulled down in a long, straight, and comfortable braid. Her face was pale, and her eyes were large and blue. She was a young woman of about twenty, and she was very beautiful. She was sitting in a room that was very comfortable and cozy. There was a fire in the grate, and the room was warm. She was looking at a book, and she was smiling. She was a very happy young woman.
